STEPS TO TAKE IN FILING AN EVICTION CASE

The following information does not apply to Mobile Home Lot Rental, if the tenant owns the mobile home.

Before a lawsuit is filed, you must give a written notice to the tenant to vacate because:

1. NON-PAYMENT OF RENT – Keep a copy of notice to bring to the Clerk when filing.
 - (a) Notice must state that the tenant has three (3) working days to pay rent or vacate the premises listed. The three (3) working days exclude Saturday, Sunday and observed legal holidays. Do not count the day the notice was given and allow three (3) complete working days to elapse before filing the lawsuit.
 - (b) Notice must state amount of rent owed and the date the notice was given to the tenant.
 - (c) Notice must state the name and address of both the Landlord and the Tenant.

2. ANY REASON OTHER THAN NON-PAYMENT OF RENT – Keep a copy of notice to bring to the Clerk when filing.

- (a) Seven (7) days notice of non-compliance of lease or rental agreement must be given to the tenant.
- (b) Fifteen (15) days notice prior to the end of any monthly period, when the tenancy is month to month without specific duration. Seven (7) days prior to the end of any weekly period, when the tenancy is week to week and without specific duration.

When filing your lawsuit you will need the following documents (Please print or type the forms and make sure they are legible):

- (1) Completed original petition and one copy for each defendant.
- (2) Completed original summons and 2 copies for each defendant.
- (3) One copy of the notice given to the defendant for the court file and one copy for each defendant named in the case.
- (4) A copy of the lease for the file and one copy for each defendant named in the lawsuit.
- (5) You should keep a copy of all the documents filed for your records.

If you are filing a case with Count I (eviction, to have the tenant removed from the property) and Count II (damages for unpaid rent or damages to the property). The 20 day summons for damages must be personally served (hand delivered). You will need the following in addition to the above requirements to file your case:

- (a) A copy of the complaint for each defendant.
- (b) A completed original 20 day summons and 2 copies for each defendant.

Please verify on the complaint, the eviction address, the apartment number, the lot number and spelling of the street address for correctness, in order for the Liberty County Sheriff's Office to serve the five (5) day Summons without delay.

TO MAKE SERVICE BY POSTING EFFECT: (Eviction Only)

If the Landlord wants the Sheriff to POST (if unable to hand deliver) a copy of the summons and complaint, the Landlord must furnish the Clerk's office with a pre-stamped legal size envelope addressed to each Tenant named in the lawsuit and an additional copy of the complaint, summons, lease agreement and notice. A copy of the summons and complaint will be mailed to the Tenant by the Clerk's office making the posted summons and complaint a valid service. F.S. 48.183(2)

If the Notice to Quit is defective or if the Notice of Termination is defective, your case is subject to immediate dismissal. If your case is dismissed your court cost will not be refunded.

The assisting Deputy Clerk will collect the appropriate filing fee, assign a case number and judge to the pleading, sign and seal the summons provided by the landlord. If you prefer, she will forward the summons to the Sheriff's Office for you.

The summons will direct the defendant to answer and deposit the amount in dispute into the Court Registry within 5 days after service of the summons and complaint. Only cash or cashier's checks will be accepted as payment of rent. Failure to pay and/or answer may result in a judicial order for eviction without further notice.

PAYING MONEY TO THE COURT REGISTRY ACCOUNT

The Clerk's Office is entitled to a fee of 3% of the first $500.00 being paid into the Registry Account, and 1.5% of the remaining balance. Example: you are paying $700.00 the Clerk's fee will be $15.00 for the first $500 and $3.00 for the remaining $200, the total to be paid would be $718.00. The funds will be held until an order is signed by the Judge instructing the Clerk to disburse the funds and to whom.

DEFAULT AND FINAL JUDGMENT

1. Answer not filed within 5 days after service of the summons. On the 6th day you should present to the clerk a Motion for Default for Residential Eviction and the Final Judgment.

After entry of the Default, the clerk will forward the proposed Final Judgment of Eviction to the Judge. He will review the file for proper and timely filings in the case. If he finds everything in order he should sign the Final Judgment of Eviction, and the Clerk will execute the Writ of Possession (a 24 hour notice to vacate) and forward to the Landlord or to the Sheriff if a check has been left in our office for this purpose. The Landlord should inquire at the Sheriff's Office concerning the time for the property to be turned over to the Landlord.

2. Answer filed or Rent deposited into the Registry of the Court.

Upon receipt of an Answer or upon deposit of rent into the registry of the Court, the Clerk will forward the file to the Judge for review to determine whether a final Judgment of Eviction will be entered, or a mediation hearing be set or a hearing before the Judge should be scheduled. If a hearing of any kind is scheduled you will be notified by mail.

If the tenant moves out prior to a Final Judgment being entered, or an agreement is reached allowing the tenant to stay, the landlord must file an original Voluntary Dismissal. A copy of the Voluntary Dismissal must be mailed or delivered to the defendant. Please note the Landlord should not accept any monies from the defendant(s) during the eviction process, instead the landlord should instruct the defendant(s) to deposit any and all monies into the Registry of the Court.

NOTE: Effective March 31, 1992, “A landlord’s agent is not permitted to take any action other than the initial filing of the complaint, unless the landlord’s agent is an attorney”. (Sec. 83.59(2), F.S.) A property manager may handle an eviction as long as it remains an uncontested case.

The Landlord and Tenant should take note, should you file any documents with the court you must provide copies to the other party either by mail or hand delivery. A certificate should be placed on the document that you have done so.

The Clerk’s Office cannot refuse to accept any filing presented to them. Any determination regarding the proper filing of a complaint or pleading will be made by the Judge.

Oral and Written Leases

A lease is an agreement to rent property. It may be written or oral. Most are written, however, because oral agreements can be subject to misunderstandings. A written lease can be in the form of a formal contract or simply a copy of a letter that states the rights and obligations of both tenant and landlord, or as specifically addressed by the law. The length of an oral lease term is determined by the schedule of the rental payments (weekly, monthly, quarterly or annually). All notices between landlord and tenant must be in writing, whether lease is oral or written.

A Landlord may require deposits, damage deposits and/or advanced rent payments. Deposits submitted by the Tenant, who then decides not to occupy the unit, may not be refundable. Deposits that are non-refundable must be stated as such in the rental agreement.

If the Landlord does not intend to impose a claim on the damage deposit, he must return it with any applicable interest to the Tenant within 15 days of the lease termination. If the Landlord intends to impose any claim upon it, he must notify the Tenant in writing explaining the reason(s) and the amount to be withheld by certified mail to the Tenant's last known address within 30 days of the lease termination. The Landlord's failure to send a notice within the 30 day period will result in the forfeiture of the Landlord's rights to impose such claim unless Tenant fail to provide the Landlord the required proper notice prior to vacating the dwelling. If the Tenant wishes to object to claims being imposed upon the damage deposit, he may bring the matter to the appropriate court's jurisdiction (file a lawsuit).

Responsibilities

The Landlord is responsible for providing a properly maintained and healthy place for the tenant to live in. His responsibilities will vary according to the type of the rental unit. In a single family home or duplex, the landlord (unless agreed upon and modified in writing) is obligated to:

- Comply with applicable building, housing and health code requirements. If none are applicable, the landlord must maintain in good repair, all structural components of the rental unit including the roof, floors, exterior walls, windows and screens.
- Maintain the plumbing in reasonably good working order.

In other types of rental units, the landlord (unless otherwise agreed upon in writing) is additionally obligated to:

- Make reasonable provisions for extermination.
- Provide locks and keys.
- Provide for a clean and safe condition of common areas.
- Provide garbage removal and outside garbage receptacles.
- Provide working facilities for heat, running water and hot water.
- Provide a functioning smoke detection device.

The landlord is not prohibited from adding a provision in the rental agreement that obligates the tenant to pay for utilities, water, fuel or garbage removal costs and charges.

The Tenant is obligated to:

- Comply with all applicable building, housing and health codes imposed upon tenants
- Maintain premises that the tenant occupies or uses, in a clean and sanitary condition.
- Dispose garbage from dwelling in a clean and sanitary manner.
- Keep all plumbing fixtures used by the tenant clean, sanitary and in repair.
- Operate and use all electrical, plumbing and other facilities in a reasonable manner.
- Not deface damage or remove any property belonging to the landlord, nor permit anyone to do so.
- Conduct him/her and those on the premises with his/her consent, in a manner that will not disturb the peace, or that of his/her neighbors.

Failure to Fulfill Lease Obligations

Certain remedies are available in the event either party fails to meet requirements of the lease or applicable provisions of the law.

Failure by Landlord: Should the Tenant withhold rental payment because of Landlord's non-performance of his responsibilities, the Tenant must notify the Landlord of his intentions in writing by certified mail, at least seven days before rental due date, in order to provide time for corrective action by the Landlord. If after seven days, the non-performance is not corrected and the Tenant withholds the rental payment, the Landlord may start civil process for collection. Should this occur, the Tenant must deposit the rental amount into the Court Registry for Court resolution and fund disbursement?

The Landlord is also prohibited from forcing the Tenant out by:

- Directly or indirectly causing Tenant's utility services to be interrupted or shut off.
- Denying Tenant's access into dwelling by changing the locks or using other entry prohibitive devices.
- Removing the dwellings outside doors, locks, roof, walls, or windows; unless it is for the purpose of maintenance, repair or replacement.
- Removing the Tenant's property from the rented dwelling unless such action is taken after Tenant surrender, abandonment or lawful eviction.

In the event the Landlord violates any of these provisions, the Tenant may pursue legal action against Landlord for actual or consequential damages or three month's rent, whichever is greater, plus court costs and attorney's fees.

Failure by Tenant: Should the Tenant fail to meet obligations of the lease or applicable law (except for non-payment of rent), the Landlord must notify the Tenant in writing of the non-performance, and give Tenant seven days for corrective action.

If after seven days the non-performance remains uncorrected, the Landlord may begin the civil process for eviction.

For non-payment of rent the Landlord must serve the Tenant a written notice allowing three days (weekends and holidays excluded) for Tenant to pay the rent or vacate the dwelling. If after three days the Tenant does not pay the rent or vacate, the Landlord may file legal action with the County Court in Order to take possession of the dwelling.

The Landlord may not evict a Tenant in retaliation for:

- Tenant complaining to governmental agency of suspected violations related to housing, building or health codes.
- Asserting Tenant rights.

The Tenant has equal possession rights to the dwelling he is renting as if it was his own. However, Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to allow Landlord entry into the dwelling. With proper notice, the Landlord may enter the dwelling at reasonable times to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations, or improvements, supply agreed services or to show unit to a prospective or actual purchaser, tenant, mortgagee, workman or contractor. The Landlord may enter the dwelling anytime for the protection or preservation of the unit.

Frequently Ask Questions

My tenant has not paid rent, what can I do?

You must serve the tenant with the proper notice, the notice must give them 3 working days, excluding, the date of service, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays in which to pay the rent in full or vacate the premises. If the tenant fails to pay or move within the required time limit, a complaint may be filed for Removal of Tenant for Non Payment of Rent.

What if the tenant wants to pay the rent after the Notice is served?

Refer to Florida Statutes 83.596 regarding the acceptance of rent after notice is given.

Are there forms available?

Yes, you will find the forms for notices as well as the complaint form in this packet.

What do I need to begin the suit?

At the time of filing you will need copies of the notice you have given them, lease if there is one, prepared complaint, summons and stamped addressed business envelopes. Refer to the instructions in this packet for the number of copies you will need.

Can a property manager file on my behalf?

A property manager may file the necessary paperwork for you as long as it remains an uncontested case. If the case goes to a hearing the owner must appear or have an attorney appear for you.

What if the tenant is doing other things other than not paying the rent, what can be done to get them out?

A seven day notice with cure can be given for non-compliance with the rental agreement (unauthorized people or pets, loud noise, trash, etc.). If the tenant is seriously damaging the property, a seven day notice without cure may be given.

What if the tenant moves and leaves possessions in the rental unit?

Please refer to Florida Statutes 715.109 on how to dispose of the property and protect you from liability.

What if the landlord will not repair the dwelling?

You may give the landlord a written seven (7) day notice before the rent comes due to initiate the repairs needed or else you will be moving or withholding the rent. If the landlord fails to make the repairs you can either move or withhold the rent. If you withhold the rent, the landlord may give you a three day notice for the non payment and initiate eviction proceedings. You have the right to post the rent with the Court once the case has been filed with the Clerk.

If I have contention with the landlord over the dwelling, can I post the rent into the registry of the Court?

Money may be posted into the court registry only when a case is filed with the Clerks office. You may want to contact an attorney or refer to the Florida Statutes for direction.

Can the landlord just come in and take possession or change the locks on the dwelling?

The landlord should give a proper notice in writing to you and then the landlord should start eviction proceedings with the Court which would serve you with a summons by the Sheriff and give you an opportunity to file an answer.

If I file an answer and the Judge has not made a decision before my five days are up, do I still have to move at the end of the five days?

When you file an answer, it will be sent to the Judge's Office as soon as possible by the clerk. We must wait until the Judge has made his decision before any paperwork can be signed or a hearing set. There is no time limit on the Judge and these cases are looked at quickly as possibly depending on the judge's calendar.

I have a tenant that has not paid rent; can I have them evicted even though they have children?

You should give the proper notice to the tenant that complies with the statutes. When the notice has been given and the time has expired, an eviction lawsuit can be filed to have the tenant vacate the property. A summons will be served on the tenant that will give them specific instructions on how to proceed with the lawsuit.

I want to evict my son, daughter, girlfriend, boyfriend etc. from my house that I am living in.

The eviction process is for rental property that is owned by one person and rented to another. If someone is living in your house and you no longer want him or her there, an eviction may not be the procedure to follow. You should contact an attorney for assistance or if you need help in locating an attorney, call the Lawyers Referral Service at 1-800-342-8011.

I am being evicted and I was just served a notice giving me 24 hours to move, is this correct?

After a Judgment is signed and a Writ of Possession is issued and served on the tenant, the tenant has 24 hours to vacate. The sheriff will authorize the landlord to remove all personal belongings from the house after 24-hours and give possession of the property back to the landlord.

Can I file a Motion for Default if the tenant has answered and the judge is reviewing the file?

No, we can not enter a default since the tenant has complied with the summons and answered. We must wait until we hear from the judge to proceed with the case.

In any legal proceeding, however, the tenant will have to pay all past due rent and rent as it comes due during the legal proceedings, into the registry of the court. The tenant should therefore, deposit all rent as it comes due in a separate bank account until the tenant's disputes with the landlord have been solved, For the text of Florida Statute 83.51(1), and the grounds for withholding rent see the note to Form 5.
